Kiwanis FAQ 3

Christmas/Holiday Party and Auction Fun, Successful

The club's ninth annual Christmas/Holiday party and auction on Friday, December 2, was great fun. And it also was successful, according to one of the event organizers, Scott Splichal: the event brought in more than $800 for the club, before expenses. This included the 50/50 raffle and proceeds from the silent and live auctions. Thanks to Scott and the other event organizers, Jack Knarr and President Jeff Udrasols, along with auctioneer Randy Hause from Christy's of Indiana. See pictures of the event on the next page.

KIPS Scholarship Event March 15

Interviews for Kiwanis KIPS scholarships will be held Saturday, March 3, according to event organizer Steve Hadley. The scholarships will be presented to 5 Southport High School seniors on March 15.

This is the 24th year for the KIPS scholarships and the second year that Perry Township Kiwanis has been involved. The Kiwanis Club of Indianapolis Foundation provides financial support, and the club provides administration for the event.

Included are the $5,000 Dunham scholarship and four $1,000 scholarships.

KIPS (Kiwanis Improvement Program) motivates and rewards students with improved grade point averages and excellent attendance.
